*This spread sheet is for reference only. Products may have been changed, updated, improved, discontinued, or otherwise modified since this test was conducted in 2006. Products were selected and recorded based on general availability in the Western USA and/or through regular industry distributors. This remains only a report of in-store testing completed by Paschke as a comparison study, and in no way advocates use of any specific product. The Xs indicate suggested uses based on appearance and test results.
